Asserts we are in Last Lap of European War; Believes Three Heads Should Confer

By Alex H. Singleton

LONDON, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill told Commons today "a very good working agreement" had been reached with Russia on the problems of south-eastern Europe, but acknowledged his efforts to end the Russian-Polish dispute, prime objective of his mission to Moscow, had not proved successful.

Likening himself to a wandering minstrel of diplomacy, Churchill said he and President Roosevelt should confer with Marshal Stalin before the year ends. But he declared that "all is solid, sure and sound" among the three Allies.

The Prime Minister summed up the results of his conferences with Stalin as "highly satisfactory" and underscored the necessity for dispersing misunderstandings and forestalling them before they occur.

"I am quite sure," he added, "that no final result can be obtained until the heads of the three governments have met together, as I earnestly trust they may do before this year is out."

"At Quebec," he said, "the President and I felt very much the absence of Russia. At Moscow, Marshal Stalin and I were deeply conscious that the President was not with us although in this case the American observer, Mr. Averell Harriman, the accomplished ambassador of the United States, made us feel at all times the presence of the great republic."

Short Reports

In one of the shortest reports he has ever made after a major conference, Churchill spoke only about 30 minutes. Commons granted his previously expressed plea that it refrain from using the report as the basis for a general policy debate.

He touched but briefly upon the military situation.

Asserting that "we are in the last lap" of the European war, Churchill declared:

"Let all hope die in German breasts that there will be the slightest division or weakening among the forces that are crowding in upon them and will crush the life out of their resistance."

While he said recognition of the French provisional government heralded return of France to "her rightful and historic role on the world stage," Churchill declared that the future of the world in the next few years depends upon united action by the United States, Russia and Britain.

"Other countries," he said, "will be associated, but the future depends on the union of the three most powerful Allies. If that fails all fails; if that succeeds a broad future for all nations may be assured."

Russia and Poland Apart

"He frankly acknowledged that a solution had not been reached in the long dispute between Russia and Poland."

"It is certainly not for want of trying," he said, adding: "I am quite sure, however, that we have got a great deal nearer to it."

But, he said, Britain, Russia and the United States, "are all firmly agreed on the recreation of a strong, free, independent, sovereign Poland, loyal to the Allies and friendly to her great neighbor and liberator, Russia."

The Prime Minister expressed the hope that Poland and Russia would lose no time in resuming their discussions "and bringing them to an effective conclusion."

Prime Minister Churchill, declared that the "present stage of war is dour and hard and the fighting must be expected on all fronts to increase in scale and intensity."

"We believe we are in the last lap," he asserted, "but this is a race in which the failure to exert the fullest effort to the end may protract that end."

Bradshaw, in Warrensburg, Talks of Pendergast Machine

By The Associated Press

Attention of Missouri Republicans centered in Kansas City today for the address there tonight of Gov. John W. Bricker, party nominee for the Vice Presidency.

The Ohio governor was scheduled to arrive on his special train at the Kansas City union station at 6:30 p. m. after a swing through Kansas. His address tonight will be broadcast over a national hookup, beginning at 9:30 p. m.

Governor Bricker will be introduced at the campaign rally at Kansas City's Ivanhoe Temple by Gov. Forrest C. Donnell of Missouri, who will speak briefly. Other speakers will include Jean Paul Bradshaw, Republican nominee for governor of Missouri, and Edward L. Scheffler, Missouri insurance commissioner.

By The Associated Press

Roy McKittrick, attorney general and Democratic nominee for the U. S. senate, lashed out at his Republican opponent, Gov. Forrest C. Donnell, in a speech last night, asserting the Missouri governor and his associates "are attempting to mislead and misguide the voters to obtain votes."

Governor Donnell, speaking at what sponsors said was the largest political meeting of the campaign at Sedalia, confined his talk to the importance of exercising the right of suffrage.

Jean Paul Bradshaw, GOP candidate for governor, told Republicans at a Warrensburg meeting that the Pendergast machine of Kansas City hopes to rebuild for a political comeback in Missouri around Phil M. Donnelly, Democratic nominee for governor.

McKittrick referred to a Republican campaign publication as a "smear sheet which Governor Donnell is condoning and which is following the Republican campaign tactics in failing to tell people."

He 'Jumped' Into Holland

Word from a Sedalian who jumped into Holland last month has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams, 1714 West Sixteenth street. Parts of the letter from their son, Paratrooper Billy Williams, follow:

"You might have guessed it by now — I'm in Holland. I jumped here the 17th of September. I've been pretty lucky so far and things are going pretty good. Don't know when we'll be taken out of here but don't care if things stay like they are."

"Say, I'd like to have a good watch if you can find a waterproof one that wouldn't get full of sand. Don't send a real fancy one, now. That's about all except for cigarettes and candy or anything to eat."

Staff Sergeant Henry N. Levien of New York City, stationed at the Sedalia Army Air Field, editor of the Troop Courier since February, today received his honorable discharge from the service.

Snow in New York

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The first snow of the season, driven by a strong wind and accompanied by rain, greeted New Yorkers on their way to work today. The temperature was 41 and the snow melted as soon as it reached the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Raut plan to drive leisurely to Mexico.

Mr. Raut, after graduation from the University of Missouri, taught languages in the university at Columbia, and at Washington university, St. Louis. He had charge of the educational work for the Y. M. C. A. in St. Louis, going from there to Illinois, first with the state YMCA organization, later in East St. Louis and in Granite City. During those years a great deal of his work was dealing with foreign born boys, teaching them English. He will teach English in Mexico.

United States Navy Proudly Celebrates 169th Anniversary

By Hamilton W. Faron
WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The United States navy proudly celebrated its 169th anniversary today, all hands jubilant over what may prove to be its biggest victory in battle.

Exultation is evident throughout the navy as word spreads of the crushing defeat handed the Japanese navy by the Pacific fleet.

But with it all there is a note of caution, from Navy Secretary Forrestal himself, who said last night that despite blasting of "30-odd Japanese warships" the enemy still has a sizeable fleet.

Germans In Holland Desperate

Trying to Relieve Forces Caught in Series of Pincers; Canadians Reinforced

By William Frye

LONDON, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Field Marshal Gen. Walter Von Model's Germans leaped into a counterattack along a 10-mile front against the eastern side of the British salient in Holland today after a heavy artillery barrage.

The attack, which was spread from the Dutch town of Venlo on the German border south to Roermond, in a sector last reported held by American armor, ran into a wall of fire and steel, front line dispatches said.

Von Model was striking desperately to relieve his forces caught in a series of tightening pincers in west Holland.

Canadian forces fighting on both sides of the Schelde in westward advances to open Antwerp, were reinforced by British troops who landed on South Beveland island north of the estuary and established a seven-square-mile beachhead.

Driving Into Island

Berlin accounts said this bridgehead was "several kilometers deep" and was in the neighborhood of Hoedekenskerke, 5½ miles ahead of Canadian spearheads driving into the island from the east.

A second attempt to land several thousand troops in American amphibious tanks and landing craft at Hansweert, to the east of this bridgehead and across the south Beveland canal just ahead of the Canadian spearhead was broken up this morning, the Germans declared.

Field dispatches said several towns were captured in the beachhead by the British who crossed the three to five-mile wide Schelde at 4 a. m., yesterday, swarmed up the 20-foot dike and surprised thinly strung German machinegunners. The beachhead was strengthened throughout the day yesterday by a ferry service.

The Canadians, completing their drive down the two-mile wide, 10-mile long neck of land connecting the mainland with the island, reached the south Beveland canal which cuts across the neck.

U. S. Airplanes Still Pursue the Remnants of Proud Imperial Fleet

By the Associated Press

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, Oct. 27.—(AP)—A Japanese naval disaster, threatening momentarily to surpass Nippon's 35-warship tragedy of 1942 off Guadalcanal, stemmed today from an amazing gamble which actually succeeded in getting enemy warships perilously close to America's invasion beaches on Leyte.

The confirmed sinking or damaging of 27 warships, including three carriers and 10 battleships in a trio of naval-air encounters off the Philippines, tells a far from completed story.

Remnants of the once proud imperial fleet which it now can be disclosed, actually penetrated Leyte gulf and attacked transports engaged in Gen. Douglas MacArthur's landings, still were under relentless air pursuit. MacArthur announced today his land based Liberators have damaged an enemy light cruiser in the Mindanao sea.

But, without the continuing achievements, the already accomplished blows promise to lift Japan's losses beyond the 35 warships sunk or damaged off Guadalcanal in November, 1942.

Several enemy destroyers are known to have gone down which are not included in the confirmed 27.

Tide Turns

Today, Vice Adm. Thomas C. Kinkaid, whose outnumbered Seventh fleet turned the tide from threatened disaster into history-making triumph in Leyte gulf, made clear much more remains to be catalogued officially.

It was Kinkaid who split up his fleet, took on two enemy warship forces converging on the Leyte invasion scene and trounced both while submarines and warships and carrier planes of Adm. William F. Halsey, Jr.'s Third fleet surprised and dealt mortal blows on enemy fatpots attempting a sneak punch from Formosa waters.

Today Kinkaid told Dean Schneider, Associated Press war correspondent in the Philippines, that the Japanese risked from 93 to 46 warships in the two battles near Leyte and only 20 retired. The general summary suggested from 19 to 26 enemy ships were bagged although it did not differentiate between sunk and damaged. But the 20 which got away were pursued by planes, and, doubtless, as yet undisclosed damage was heaped on them.

Japanese Claims

Japan, of course, painted a much more glowing picture for the home land.

Introducing today an English-language broadcast with "Big Extra: News Flash From Tokyo," the Japanese radio listed claims that planes and submarines have sunk two more American carriers and a destroyer, as well as damaged a third carrier and two cruisers. These unconfirmed claims, plus previous ones, added up to the eye lifting one of 84 American warships sunk or damaged.

The latest trio of naval battles is believed to have cut quite thin Japan's available battle wagons — warships she has husbanded for critical phases — and to have left her carrier strength woefully weak.

Lieut. William Burford, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Burford, 1006 South Grand avenue, has been awarded the Air Medal, according to word received by his wife, the former Miss Anna Houchen, who is residing with her parents in Hughesville.

He has a young son, William Eugene, born in August of this year.

Roosevelt in Philadelphia

By Howard Flieger

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, off on a two-day campaign thrust to the midwest, arrived in Philadelphia at noon today for a Navy Day inspection of near shipyards and a major Shibe Park speech tonight.

His official party started boarding automobiles almost immediately for a motorcade trip through Philadelphia and nearby Camden, N. J. On the itinerary were visits to the navy yard, the Cramp Shipyard and a signal corps depot.

U. S. Losses

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—(AP)—American losses in defeating the Japanese navy in the battle of the Philippines totaled six warships — the air-craft carrier Princeton, two escort carriers, 2 destroyers and a destroyer escort. Names of the vessels, except the Princeton, which were lost in sinking or damaging at least 27 Japanese warships, were not disclosed in the navy's brief communique today, pending notification of next of kin of casualties aboard the ships.

No details, the navy said, are yet available on circumstances of the loss of the ships, which probably carried a total of about 3,900 men.

A large portion of this total personnel was aboard the light carrier Princeton from which Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, Pacific Fleet Commander, has said more than 1,300 officers and men were rescued.

Reds Fighting In Outskirts Of Gumbinnen

Germans are Evacuating All Civilians

LONDON, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Russian troops advanced 15 miles in Czechoslovakia to (Uzhhorod), virtually completing the capture of the Carpatho-Ukraine which Hungary seized from the republic.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Fall of the important East Prussian communications center of Gumbinnen appeared imminent today as the Germans announced evacuation of

The Moscow radio said today that Red troops advancing in East Prussia had liberated Russian girls who had been sold in slave markets by the Germans.

The broadcast, recorded by the Soviet Monitor, said hundreds of girls in conquered territory were sold to Nazi bidders.

The civilian population from the path of onrushing Soviet forces.

A Moscow communique declared last night that the Red army had captured Grunewitschen, four miles southwest of Gumbinnen and Guddinn, seven miles east of the city. Shirgallen and Amalienhof, 10 miles to the east, also were taken.

Unconfirmed reports reaching here from Moscow asserted that the Russians now were believed fighting in the outskirts of Gumbinnen, a city of 15,000 to 20,000. Gumbinnen is 66 miles southeast of the provincial capital of Konigsberg.

An American commentator, in speaking over the Moscow radio, reported that German civilians already were fleeing Konigsberg in panic.

The Russian communique said the Germans were offering fierce resistance in East Prussia as the Red army battled its way forward along the Kaunas-Konigsberg highway in hand to hand fighting in which at least 2,800 more Nazis were slain.

Berlin, also reporting large scale battles, maintained the Russians had lost 900 tanks in 10 days and were being held except for "a few dents" on an 85-mile front from Augustow in the south to the Niemen river in the north.

Hunters Find Man's Body

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Two duck hunters yesterday removed the body of an unidentified man, about 60 years of age, from the Missouri river east of here. A deputy coroner said the body appeared to have been in the water ten days.

Mr. Roosevelt came here from Wilmington, Del., where—bareheaded and without a top coat—he stood on the rear platform of his train and made a brief heavy-duty vote to the crowd which came out in raw, cloudy weather to the chief executive.

"A big vote in America this year will speak powerfully for the cause of democracy all over the world," he said in Wilmington—then added with a chuckle at the end of his prepared address: "I won't urge you to vote early and often because if I did I might go to jail."

Americans Free An Additional 15 Communities In Philippines

By Nurlin Spencer

GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Leyte, Philippines, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Fast moving American Doughboys have carved out a solid 40-mile-long invasion front on Leyte island and have surged deeper inland to free an additional 15 communities, a communique reported today.

The general advance continued, despite increased Japanese resistance west of Palo, in the north-central sector, and a counter attack which was repulsed on Samar island. American guns and planes bagged 76 Japanese aircraft during "intermittent harassing raids" on the invasion armada.

The Americans secured control of Leyte's eastern coast, from the northern tip to Dulag, when the 10th and 24th army corps joined forces. The juncture was made south of American held Tanauan, some 10 miles below Tacloban.

Simultaneously, the southern end of the Leyte valley trap was being closed tighter by tank-led doughboys who captured two key towns in a double-pronged drive that overran several communities off the main highways.

Buri Captured

Buri, previously bypassed because of its strong defenses, was captured after severe fighting by the 7th division forces punching up the valley's north-south highway. They previously took the Buri airfield and advanced several miles along the highway from the captured road junction of Burauan. Their main immediate goal evidently is Dagami, a communications town near the center of the roadway.

The 96th division, pushing inland from the coast toward Dagami, captured Tabontaban, a river town eastward. The town is 3½ miles west of Oatman Hill, where strong Japanese entrenchments have been encircled.

The 24th division, attempting to close the northern end of the Leyte trap, encountered increasing Jap opposition in its advance westward from Palo.

Farther north, the American hold was tight on San Juanico straits, after elements of the First Cavalry division repulsed a small enemy counterattack at Lapaz on Samar island.

Japanese aerial assaults against shipping in San Pedro bay and the beachheads area, said the communique, were "again limited to intermittent harassing raids causing light damage and casualties."

Two Democrats Off His List

SALISBURY, Mo., Oct. 27.—(AP)—James A. Collet, outstate Missouri Democratic leader and father of Federal Judge John Caskie Collet, said today in a prepared statement he would vote against both President Roosevelt and Attorney General Roy McKittrick, Democratic nominee for U. S. senator.

The elder Collet termed the New Deal as a "milder sounding term for dictatorship."

"I have known McKittrick long and well and do not think he has the ability or dependability to qualify him for the high office he seeks," Collet said. "He has no definite fixed principles. His only objectives is to get votes. He is everything to everybody."

Sunday School Lesson

Christians Are Not Immune to Evil: Must Fight and Conquer its Forces. Text: Psalm 4:5-8; Luke 4:4; John 6:35; Romans 12:1, 2; 13:12-14.

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

These texts widely chosen and in various connections, all have this in common — they emphasize the spiritual worth of life and that its only true worth is spiritual.

The Psalmist answers those who say, "What's the use? Who will show us any good?" His answer in effect is: "Live right, and you will find out." "Offer the sacrifices of righteousness and put your trust in the Lord." In his own life this has brought gladness of heart, and a deep sense of security. "I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep; for thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety."

These words will undoubtedly provoke challenging thoughts in many minds at a time when we know only too well that millions have been living in anything but peace and security. We know too, that many of the purest and noblest have lived in the greatest peril, bringing down upon them the tyrant's hand just because they were pure and noble, and refused to do his will.

What are we to say to these things? The Bible itself, and the land and people of the Bible, have given the answer. It tells how the innocent and the saintly have suffered with, and for the guilty. It tells of trials and persecutions inflicted upon good men by evil men. The Book itself has come out of times like our own. It does not ignore evil, or the power of evil. Jesus himself did not offer His disciples immunity from hardship and pain.

But two things are to be said. First, even in trial and sorrow the worth of life and the sustaining power of God has again and again been revealed in marvelous ways. Terror and horror have not destroyed faith and hope in the darkest places of Europe and Asia.

And second, we must recognize that the Bible expresses the spiritual laws of normal life. Times of war and terror are abnormal in the life of humanity and life as a whole vindicates the Psalmist. It is true, proven again and again, that right living does bring gladness and peace, and a sense of safety. Even where men and women have died for their faith they have died with confidence in God. It is those who have persecuted them that have been unsafe, not they.

And today we are seeing God's ways and God's laws vindicated. We are seeing the powers of evil overthrown, and those who strode the world with swaggering boasting and ruthlessness are being cast from their places.

It is a good time to turn to our Bibles and learn there the true art of living and its Christian motive and incentive.

Unity For Peace

There is a worldwide movement on foot for religious unity. This does not imply a unity of churches, but of men and women of all faiths, who will join forces in the founding of a world order on justice and goodwill. It is a movement in which Protestant, Catholic, and Jew, each holding firm to his individual faith, will work for the common good.

The common good demands collaboration in promoting social, political, and economic opportunity; in defending freedom of conscience and of religion; in building new patterns of progress embracing all races, colors, and classes. It means a spirit, not merely of tolerance or even of friendliness, but of practical, living brotherhood.

It would be folly to imagine that the end of Nazism will bring about the disappearance of the intolerance, the hatred, that has swept like a scourge through the lands of Europe. The struggle against racism, against greed, violence, and oppression, must go on long after Hitlerism has been destroyed. It must continue, not on the battlefield, but in legislatures, churches, homes—in the places all over the world where men and women meet together.

To keep the peace that is now being won we must fight name-calling; anti-Semitism; anti-Christianity; economic exploitation; poverty; disease; ignorance. The call to that battle goes out even now to men united in the recognition of common moral principles that bind all men of all nations.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 29, 1944. Golden Text: Lamentations 3:39, 40.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye" (Ezek. 18:32).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Without punishment, sin would multiply. The moral law, which has the right to acquit or condemn, always demands restitution before mortals can 'go up higher.' Broken law brings penalty in order to compel this progress" (p-11).

Dari Ann says

School time again! Time for new, tasty AND nutritious items for school lunches. Here's a suggestion—and it combines simplicity, nutrition and taste. Serve warm for dinner, but hold back enough for those sandwiches for lunch next day. Delicious spread with cream cheese, fruit jellies or just plain butter.

Peanut Butter Bread

1 cup white flour
1 cup whole wheat flour
3 tablespoons sugar
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt

Mix and sift into mixing bowl, then add—

1 whole egg well beaten
3/4 cup water
3/4 cup DARICRAFT
3/4 cup Peanut Butter
1/2 cup chopped salted peanuts

Bake in greased loaf pan at 350° for 45 min.

Now get yourself some DARICRAFT and try this on your family soon, won't you? Watch the kiddies—AND father rave about it's "zooty" flavor. Of course, it's DARICRAFT that gives it that "special goodness." You can buy it at most grocery stores now.

Autographed Book as Gift

Mrs. Sylvain Kahn, 421 West Sixth street, has received an autographed copy of Rabbi Samuel S. Mayerberg's new book, "Chronicles of an American Crusader," recently published by the Bloch Publishing company of Cincinnati.

Dr. Mayerberg, rabbi of Temple B'Nai Jehudah of Kansas City, is well known in Sedalia and has appeared as guest speaker at Sorosis meetings several times.

The book deals with Dr. Mayerberg's education, his early work in Dayton, Ohio, and his activities as rabbi of the congregation of B'Nai Jehudah in Kansas City in which he is a leader in interdenominational work and a progressive force in the cultural and social life of the city.

Rabbi Mayerberg qualifies as a crusader in the popular sense in several fights he has made, particularly in the one described in his book which is a candid account of his vigorous challenge to the Pendergast-controlled city government in 1932.

The title of the volume was selected by Dr. Julian Morganstern, president of Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati.

The book will go into a second printing soon and is being widely acclaimed. Judge Merrill E. Otis of Kansas City will review Dr. Mayerberg's book in Kansas City at an early date.

McKittrick Refers to 'Smear Sheet'

Charles Smear Campaign
"The scandal sheet," McKittrick said, "would have the voters believe that I have always had the support and have been dominated by the Pendergast organization. Governor Donnell and the promoters of this smear campaign know full well that in my race for attorney general in 1940 the organization supported one of my opponents. In 1944 they also supported my opponent."

The Missouri attorney general said the Republicans knew that he opposed the (governorship) contest from the beginning and that "I wrote an opinion preventing the expense of the contest from being paid out of the state treasury."

The Republican publication to which McKittrick referred is an eight-page tabloid size paper called "the inside story" which says it is "published by the Republican State committee."

Busy Day For Bradshaw
Bradshaw's talk at Warrensburg concluded a busy day which carried the candidate through Richmond, in Ray county, and Lexington and Higginsville, in Lafayette county. Bradshaw did not refer to Donnelly by name in his speech last night. He asked his hearers: "Why is it that the Pendergast candidate for governor is frantically calling for the more reputable members of the Democratic party to appear politically with him and speak a good word for him at meetings where he himself is speaking?"

"He knows that it is because the better element in the Democratic party does not trust him," Bradshaw said in answer to his own inquiry. "He realizes that the man around whom the Pendergast machine proposes to rebuild its organization and to seek a comeback in Missouri politics."

Former Governor Henry S. Caulfield urged Missourians in a radio address at St. Louis to vote for the Republicans on national and state tickets to "lead us in restoring constitutional government and preserving our liberties."

It was Caulfield's first major speech of the campaign.
"No one can successfully dispute that the New Deal administration—is tired and no longer effective to lead our people in the critical days ahead."

Meet Heavy Nazi Defenses
ROME, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Eighth army forces advancing up the Po valley along highway 9 toward Bologna have come up against German defenses two miles east of Forli, Allied headquarters announced today.

British and Canadian troops reached the Ronco river on a broad front and at several points patrols crossed the swollen stream but were withdrawn following sharp German counterattacks with tanks.

South of the Bologna-Rimini highway Indian troops also reached the river and sent patrols across. The river flows northward and empties into a canal south of Ravenna.

Vanguard Eighth army units advanced two miles nearer to Ravenna in the drive up the Adriatic coast and put a bridgehead across the Bevano river on highway 16 at a point six miles below the city.

However, heavy rain fell over both the Eighth and Fifth army fronts and generally impeded the progress in all sectors. In the central sector below Bologna, in one area it was necessary to transport supplies first five miles by jeep, then five miles by mule and four miles by infantrymen.

American troops on Mount Belmonte threw back a heavy German counterattack and other doughboys captured El Poggio and Mount Mezzano, west of Vedriano, which is five miles southwest of the Bologna-Rimini highway town of Castel San Pietro.

Company F Inspection

Company "F" 4th Mo. Inf. had its regular Thursday night drill and had as visitors Col. George Farrell, executive officer, regional headquarters, Columbia, and Master Sergeant, A. C. Burnham from regimental supply office. Col. Farrell, Capt. Arthur Burke, 1st Lieut. Ernest Reynolds, 2nd Lieut. Virgil Gilbert and Master Sergeant Burnham inspected the Company. Col. Farrell commented on the progress made by the new recruits in the Company which were enlisted during the early fall recruiting campaign. Col. Farrell stressed before the Company the importance attached to attending every Thursday night drill and the necessity for strong State Guard units throughout the country even though the war was now going in our favor. Master Sergeant Burnham had wool GI blouses sent to Company "M" for the entire Company and every man now can be issued warm winter uniforms and regular army shoes.

After inspection the Company had thirty minutes of intensive drill in riot duty deployed in various riot formations.

During the past thirty days Company "F" has had an attendance campaign. Section one of the Company under Capt. Burke, Lieut. Gilbert and Sgt. Salmon told to Section 2 under Lieut. Reynolds, Sgt. Morrow and Sgt. Hall. The reward for the best attendance was a baked ham dinner, baked potatoes, apple sauce, cole slaw, coffee and cookies.

Within the near future Company "F" will have a harvest dance and entertainment and the public will be invited.

BUSINESS LOANS are made on listed or unlisted bonds, life insurance policies, livestock, farm equipment, warehouse receipts, etc. Business men and farmers use this service to obtain cash for purchasing supplies, stock, and equipment.

AUTOMOBILE LOANS—most cars are still good security for a loan. Drive it to the office and bring the car title with you. Loans are based on current car values; there is no "red tape." Immediate Service!

FAMILY LOANS are made to husband and wife on personal security. This service is especially planned for home owners. Insurance, storm sash, enclosed porches, repairs, decorating and painting and general family needs are all provided for with a "Family Loan."

Payments are arranged on a monthly basis, like rent. Larger payments, or payment in full, may be made at any time with interest only to that date; thus you, yourself, control the cost of the loan.

Writer Bets on Army to Win On Saturday

Also Gives Missouri Tigers Odds Over Nebraska Univ.

By Orlo Robertson
NEW YORK, Oct. 27—(P)—If Navy, California, Marquette, U. C. L. A. and the Texas Aggies hadn't let us down last week we would have had a perfect performance (of course no selector counts ties as defeats). So feeling pretty good over a record of 31 victories, five defeats and four ties we plunge into this week's lineup:

Duke-Army — The experts say this will be the Cadets' first real test. Maybe so, but we look for them to win by three or four touchdowns. Army.

Navy-Pennsylvania — It's Penn's hard luck that the Middles won everything but the game at Georgia Tech last week. With proper respect for undefeated Penn outfit we'll string along with the Navy.

Notre Dame-Illinois — Wisconsin showed that the Irish could be scored against. Duddy Young or one of his speedy mates probably will do the same for the Illini but it will be Notre Dame's fifth straight victory.

Third Air Force-Randolph Field — Two flying outfits that have been flying through their opposition. Almost tempted to call on the coin for this one but on second thought judgment tells us to pick Randolph.

Chooses Ohio State
Minnesota-Ohio State — How can we pick against the Bucks after they showed such power in knocking off Great Lakes. Ohio State.

Washington-California — Southern California knocked the Huskies Monday night. The Golden Bears tied the Trojans. That spells victory for California.

Tulsa-Oklahoma A. & M. — The Aggies have triple threat Fenimore but the unbeaten Hurricanes have backs, backs and a great line. Tulsa.

Purdue-Michigan — The Boiler-makers lose several of their stars after this game. Michigan probably wishes the Navy had issued its order sooner. Purdue.

Dartmouth-Brown — A tough one. Let's give it to Brown on better scoring punch.

Great Lakes-Wisconsin — Lt. (jg) Paul Brown isn't in the habit of losing two straight games and his sailors dropped a decision to Ohio State last week. Great Lakes.

Texas-Rice — Texas looks to be the class of the southwest conference and Rice isn't going to stop the Longhorns.

Georgia This Time
LSU-Georgia — We would like to overlook this one but since it's on the schedule here goes with our fingers crossed. Georgia.

Iowa-Indiana — The Hawkeyes haven't what it takes to stop Hunch Hoenschmeyer and his mates. Indiana.

Southern Methodist-Tulane — We'll string along with Dub Jones of Tulane.

St. Mary's-Southern California — Southern Calif. to roll right along to a Rose Bowl bid.

Iowa State-Kansas State — Just about everybody has been beating the Kansas and Iowa State will make it four straight.

Texas Christian-Oklahoma — If for no other reason that Okla. is our native state and the Sooners are at home we'll pick Okla. Let's skip hither and thither for

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz Copyright, 1944, by Sigrid Schultz Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

XXIV

ALTHOUGH the Nazi germ was cultured in Germany through changes in the national character during the past half century, it has developed many possibilities for infecting the national health of other countries. Nazism is, in fact, an international disease. It is, further, all the more likely to attack in unexpected places, since under the impact of the war its carriers have gone underground.

Way back in Landsberg days the Nazi Party chieftains purposely picked out men with special foreign connections to work on susceptible groups abroad. As the Party grew in power, volunteers turned up or were ferreted out to be absorbed into the Party framework, each organization specializing in a specific country. The political emphases in each case differed with the varying national characteristics involved.

The original plan evolved at Landsberg called for the use of local anti-Semitic leaders as Nazi pioneers in foreign lands. In time a vast net of organizations sprang up to exploit the political possibilities of anti-Semitism, including the Alliance Chretienne Arienne, with its first headquarters in Paris, the Anti-Jewish World League, founded in Nuremberg, and the World Service, branching out from Erfurt, with millions of marks to spend on propaganda.

The age-old racket of anti-Semitic secret cabals may not be important in itself. But co-ordinated by wealthy organizers and big Nazi-controlled concerns, it menaces any decent tolerant community. Especially since it is often forgotten that tolerance must be firmly protected.

THE Balt German, Alfred Rosenberg, who ran the Foreign Political Office and the institute known as the Schooling House in Dahlem near Berlin, was not content with but one Nazi headquarters in neighboring countries. He visualized the advantages of maintaining two groups—an open organization, and a secret one that would work effectively under cover of the publicity inevitably aroused by its blatant brother.

The Netherlands, for instance, had an official Nazi Party under Dr. Anton Adian Mussert. Then the secret, more radical, party was launched and the Nazis were able to keep Mussert under their thumb by threatening him with his rival, I interviewed Mussert in Utrecht in 1936. He made a point of mentioning that he rejected some Nazi agents. Holland was satisfied with her quiet, for instance, and could not therefore subscribe to Nazi condemnation of women as inferior in official posts.

Sir Harry Deterding, the Dutch oil king, in a class apart but still a Nazi sympathizer, has his own uses to the Party. Believing that Nazism stood as a bulwark against Communism, Deterding financed many Nazi economic-infiltration schemes in Southeastern Europe.

The Nazi set-up in the Netherlands can be taken as characteristic of developments in nearly every other foreign country, including the United States of America.

THE Nazis obviously prize conquest of the United States above other countries. They have, however, encountered so much opposition to their best tactics that they established, in addition to their direct centers of infiltration within the country, indirect affiliates outside it, against the day when the war would curtail too-active internal work. Instead of employing Germans, in this instance, they exploited the many agencies functioning in Spain and in South America. They counted on using our sister continent as a springboard against us.

Ever since World War I, German aristocrats and big businessmen, preceding official German propaganda agents, have cultivated aristocrats and businessmen in Spain, Portugal, and South America. General Wilhelm von Faupel, an associate of General Ludendorff in 1918, spent years in South America building up sympathy for the German cause and inaugurating activist centers. Whatever mistakes the United States made he and his aides promptly enlarged and distorted. They reached far into the aristocracy, the business groups, the soldiery, and the German enclaves. General von Faupel's selling point was the superiority of Spanish culture; his follow-up arguments appealed to the national pride.

Having cached tremendous sums of money in South America in the bank accounts of wealthy and aristocratic friends, many of the leading Nazis hope that if they have to flee Germany they may find refuge below the Panama Canal. From Central and South American hide-outs, they could then finance future pan-German exploits.

North and South Americans are dangerously apt to underestimate the virulence of the Nazi poison, the thoroughness of the German enemy's designs on their welfare. This undervaluing occurs partly because only a small number of their nationals actually saw the new Germany in action in the countries Germany conquered, exploited, and oppressed. It occurs also partly because only a fraction of those North or South Americans who were in Berlin during World War II had an opportunity to hear the Germans speak openly, proudly, about their plans and aspirations, and thus to realize to what lengths even the average German will go to achieve his pan-German aims.

Enduring Peace Urge By Donnell

Large Crowd At Court House To Hear Candidate For U. S. Senate

Action guaranteeing the maintenance of a long-lasting, enduring and just peace was impressed by Gov. Forrest C. Donnell, Republican candidate for United States senator from Missouri, as the greatest in a list of critical problems which face the Senate, in a forceful speech before an audience which overflowed the circuit court room in the Pettis county court house Thursday night.

Speaking on "The Importance of the Election This Year" he emphasized the responsibilities of candidates for local, state and national offices.

In his illustrations of problems to which United States senators must devote themselves he included post-war employment when the men and the women in armed services and workers in war industries will be released; rehabilitation of the war-maimed and wounded; provisions for war-interrupted educations and advice on and approval of peace treaties.

Emphasis On Cooperation
"It behooves this nation," he asserted, "to use every effort to create a long-lasting, enduring and just peace as nearly as the wisdom of mankind is able to produce."

He emphasized that this can be effected through international cooperation, and pointed out that a first step is the formulation and adoption of a treaty between contracting nations—a treaty which through constitutional mandate must be approved by the senate, a seat in which he aspires.

Gov. Donnell, who was preceded to the platform by two state Republican candidates who accompanied him to Sedalia, was presented to the audience by Don S. Lamm of Sedalia.

Tribute To Judge Lamm
In his opening remarks the governor paid a word of tribute to the memory of Mr. Lamm's father, the late Judge Henry Lamm, who Donnell called "one of the great judicial figures of this state."

He mentioned the long and notable history of Pettis county which he recalled was organized 111 years ago.

Appearing with him on the speaking program were Loyd ("Boots") Miller of Springfield, now director of the state department of penal institutions who is Republican nominee for secretary of state, and George Metzger of St. Louis, state oil inspector who is the Republican candidate for state auditor. ## Governor Speaks were introduced, respectively, by Judge J. V. Kesterson, presiding judge of the Pettis county court, and by Mayor A. H. Wilks. Both spoke briefly.

Forrest C. Donnell, republican candidate for U. S. Senator gave address Thursday night at the Court House.

Senator Miller Speaks
A short address was made by State Senator George H. Miller of Sedalia, Republican candidate for attorney general, in which he pointed out his reasons for believing there should be "a change of administration in Washington."

Senator Miller was presented by Miss Juanita Young of Sedalia, Republican state committee-woman.

L. B. Fall of Beaman, Pettis county Republican chairman, presided over the meeting and introduced county candidates, following an invocation delivered by the Rev. William C. Bessmer.

At the beginning of his speech Gov. Donnell introduced his campaign manager, M. W. Covert, prosecuting attorney of Texas county and a colonel on the governor's staff.

Commands Candidates
During his talk Gov. Donnell paid his respects to W. W. Blain, GOP candidate for state senator from the fifteenth district, and Harvey D. Dow, nominee for the state house of representatives from Pettis county, both of Sedalia.

Donnell, in speaking for other Republican candidates, endorsed the reelection of Marion Bennett to the U. S. house of representatives.

James G. Blaine, of St. Louis, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, and Perry Compton of Montgomery City, candidate for state treasurer, who expected to reach Sedalia in time to attend the rally here, after a meeting in Warrensburg, arrived while Gov. Donnell and the other candidates greeted individually members of the audience as they left the circuit court room and passed down the stairs from the third floor of the court house.

Gov. Donnell closed his address with a tribute to the flag and as Mr. Fall dismissed the gathering a recording of "God Bless America" was played. The speeches were broadcast over a loud-speaker system through an amplifier on Gov. Donnell's campaign sound truck.

Proceeding the public rally an hour's concert was presented between 7 and 8 o'clock by Kroenke's band which moved to the circuit court room to open the meeting by playing the "Star Spangled Banner."

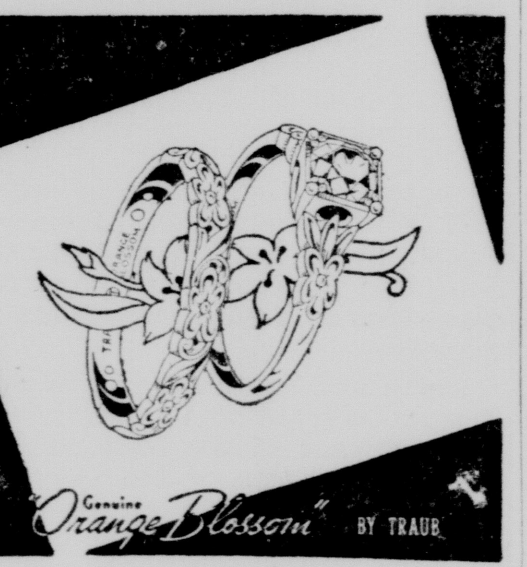

The governor and Mrs. Donnell returned to Jefferson City

'Lie' Says Truman On Klan Story

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 27.—(AP)—Sen. Harry S. Truman, Democratic vice presidential candidate, was informed at a press conference on Thursday "there is a story going the rounds that you were a member of the Ku Klux Klan," and the nominee declared the story was a "lie" that had been "nailed" 22 years ago.

A reporter for the Chicago Herald-American told the Missouri senator "there is a story going the rounds that you were a member of the Ku Klux Klan."

"Of course I'm not a member of the Klan," Truman replied. "I never was. That was nailed back in 1922 when I was elected judge of the county court for the eastern district of Jackson, county, Mo."

Merry-go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Next week in Chicago one of the most important international conferences in recent history takes place. It will decide the air routes of the postwar world and will be an early test of our ability to iron things out with the other United Nations. The job will not be easy.

Five hundred air delegates and air experts from all the United Nations will convene at the Stevens hotel in Chicago for the air conference. It will almost rival one of the political conventions. Chicago was picked for the conference because neither crowded Washington nor New York had a hotel which could conveniently house so many delegates.

Already the issues are rigidly drawn — and some of the delegates are not too happy about them. The showdown is between Great Britain and the United States. Briefly put, here are their respective positions:

United States — We favor full and free competition across all the oceans to all countries. We want any U. S. aviation company to have the right to fly to London, Paris, Berlin, Cairo, Australia, New Zealand. In return, we would give other nations the same right to land here. The British and the Dutch, et al., could put as many companies in the field as they wish and let them all land here.

Great Britain — Favors regulated air traffic by a few selected companies. In flying between New York and London, for instance, the British would measure the traffic. If 80 per cent of the passengers were American, U. S. planes would carry 80 per cent of the load. The Dutch would get 5 per cent, if they produced that many passengers and each country proportionately. The same rule would be applied to other air routes.

Cooperation All-Important
What the British want to avoid is having the United States put thousands of planes into trans-oceanic operation immediately after the war. They know we have both the planes and the pilots. We will need to use them. We can put so many companies flying on so many different lines that smaller countries won't be able to compete. As a result, the British argue, each country should go in for its own national line and subsidies.

President Roosevelt, on the other hand, believes that competition between all companies and all countries will sharpen air wits, make for faster, better air developments. He is dead opposed to cartels, either on the ground or in the air.

Most of the smaller countries, however, line up with Great Britain. They see no chance for their small air lines unless they do. Basically, the question boils down to the fact that we have the planes, Britain has the bases. Her islands, dominions, crown colonies cover the Seven Seas. Neither country can fly without the other. This first step in international cooperation is going to be all-important.

GOP Chaff

Governor Dewey and his secretary, Paul Lockwood, have lived through the most thrilling crime stories in history but are still rabid detective story readers. . . . Dewey tries to read a detective story every night before going to sleep. . . . In the executive mansion in Albany, Dewey leaves a little slip of paper for Elliott, the butler, every night, designating when he wants to be called in the morning. . . . Dewey likes silk pajamas in loud colors, though he dresses soberly during the day. . . . All Dewey's suits are tailor made, cost about $100 apiece, are produced by the same Fifth Avenue New York tailor who makes the Duke of Windsor's clothes. . . . The GOP nominee's shirts are also custom made. . . . He no longer wears attachable collars, finds them a nuisance.

Public affairs make it difficult for Dewey to spend as much time as he'd like with his children. . . . The two boys leave for school before their father gets up for breakfast, but dine with the rest of the family about twice a week at 6:30 p. m.

Keeps up With the News

Every morning after breakfast, Dewey spends an hour reading all the New York papers, occasionally reads the Broadway columns, especially Walter Winchell's. . . . After breakfast, Dewey frequently walks about a mile to his office in the Capitol, is always accompanied by two big bodyguards. . . . Once at his desk, Dewey finds a complete set of clippings carefully culled from the nation's press, concerning matters his aides think should be brought to his attention.

Since winning the presidential nomination, Dewey has less time for swimming, likes to bounce around the pool with Aide Lockwood and Publicist Jim Haggerty. Both Haggerty and Lockwood were crack swimmers in college, still easily outdistance their boss. . . . None of his entourage call Dewey by his first name, all address him as "Governor." Dewey gets to the theater about once a year, at other times sees movies on the top floor of the executive mansion, in a small projection room especially fitted for the purpose. . . . Dewey's book reading is scant, is confined to subjects which he may be trying to bone up on, at the moment, for speech. . . . Somewhat thin-skinned

California's Hard Worker

Last spring the one-time ham-and-eggs senator from California, Sheridan Downey, was considered a dead political duck. With wartime prosperity, California's ham-and-eggs enthusiasm waned. Republican politicians long ago sharpened their knives, counted Sen. Downey's scalp already in the bag. Downey, however, has fooled them. Despite the fact that the Republicans have been spending money like water, have billboards plastered all over the state and are able to buy far more radio time than Downey, their candidate, Lieutenant Governor Frederick P. Houser, is running behind.

Recently GOP Houser has been blasting Downey on alleged absenteeism, claiming that he has been in congress only 52 per cent of the time. Actually those who have watched Downey laboring in Washington know he is a glutton for work. Shunning the cocktail parties and social salons of the capital, he gets to his office early, works late.

That is why the Republicans charge has got under Downey's skin. Recently he sent Houser a registered letter, challenging him to debate at any time any place in California on the question of his absentee record or any other subject. Houser so far has ducked. Meanwhile, the irate Downey has confided to friends that he will bring suit against Houser — an unusual move in any political campaign — or take out an injunction to stop his attacks.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"We can't argue with the Judge on that point, can we Mabel? It's not fair to penalize the many for the actions of the few."

"That, folks, is exactly what we would be doing in this country if we ever voted for prohibition again. Authorities who have made a careful study of the problem, report that only about 5% of those who drink abuse the privilege occasionally...95% drink sensibly. Probably doesn't compare with the number of folks who overeat and do other things to excess. Prohibition certainly isn't the answer. It's not that simple. We had nearly 14 years proof of that, didn't we? The real answer is education and better control. In fact, the responsible members of the distilling industry are working constantly toward that end. They don't want anybody to abuse the use of their product any more than the three of us do."

"If everybody would take that sensible attitude, Judge, and cooperate as more and more are now doing, we'd be a lot better off a lot quicker."
